

This form should only be returned to us if you hold direct registered shares.

To be returned in priority to the internet address at the bottom of the page, with the supporting documents requested overleaf.

Any incomplete files will be returned and will not be accepted.

From October onwards, remember to transfer any shares intended for the festive season, to ensure they are recorded before December 31.

INFORMATION ON CUSTOMARY GIFTS

- A customary gift is made independently of any other gift.
- A customary gift is a gift of low value, given to mark a specific event (birth, marriage, Christmas, birthday, examination, others), which must not lead to the impoverishment of the gift giver.
- From a civil and tax perspective, it is generally accepted that a customary gift does not fall within the scope of the gift giver's succession.
- In terms of taxation, the Directors record a cost price of zero for the gift giver.
- A customary gift can be made without engaging the services of a notary.
