Convert your Air Liquide securities to intermediary registered form

Your shares are in bearer form

It is up to you to initiate the request to convert your Air Liquide shares to intermediary registered form with your financial institution.

1. Complete the security transfer form on the back.
2. Send the form to your financial institution^(a), which will forward your registration to Air Liquide. Your intermediary registered shares will always be managed by your financial institution and will be held in your security account or PEA.

Premium and shares savings plan (PEA)

By holding your shares in intermediary registered form, you continue to be eligible for the reduced taxation of the PEA while receiving the loyalty bonus^(b). Download the conversion form at airliquide.com under Shareholders > Forms.

Good to know

Receive the loyalty bonus starting in 2025 by converting your securities before the end of 2022. Check with your financial institution for possible bank charges. If bank charges are applied, reduce them by making a request for one-time conversion with your financial institution.

(a) Conversion fees and processing times may vary between financial institutions. Check with your usual advisor.

(b) For shares held for two full calendar years and according to the conditions in Air Liquide's articles of association.

LE+
LOYALTY
REWARDED

By holding your securities in registered form, your loyalty is rewarded!

After holding your shares in registered form for two full calendar years, you receive +10% on the amount of dividends received and on the number of free shares attributed during attribution operations.
