

Your Tax Return in 2023

The elements of taxation in this Factsheet apply to French residents for tax purposes.

The method of taxation of investment income, including dividends received and capital gains realized in 2022, can be chosen between :

- the Single Flat Tax ("flat tax" or in French "Prélèvement Forfaitaire Unique" or "PFU") of 30% ;
- Income tax (in French "IR") on a progressive scale.

You may choose a different taxation mechanism each year and this mechanism will apply to all of your investment income. Air Liquide therefore advises you to assess your overall taxation of dividends and capital gains using both methods before selecting one of the two options.

Capital gains taxation

Option A

Flat tax (PFU), 30%

Social contributions: 17.2%

on all capital gains, without deduction

Income tax: 12.8%

on capital gains without deduction

Regardless of the acquisition date of shares

or

Option B

Income tax (IR) on a progressive scale

Social contributions: 17.2%

on all capital gains, without deduction

- Shares acquired before 01/01/2018

Progressive scale of income tax after the application, where applicable, of a deduction for seniority^(a)

- Shares acquired from 01/01/2018

Progressive scale of income tax without the application of a deduction for seniority

Dividend taxation

Option A

Flat tax (PFU), 30%

Social contributions: 17.2%

on the gross amount of dividends, without deduction

Income tax: 12.8%

on the gross amount of dividends, without deduction

or

Option B

Income tax (IR) on a progressive scale

Social contributions: 17.2%

on the amount of gross dividends without deduction

Income tax based on a progressive scale

on the amount of gross dividends after the 40% deduction

(a) The deduction stands at 50% for a share seniority of between two and less than eight years, 65% for share seniority of at least eight years.

How to complete your tax return?

To help you choose between the tax methods available to you, before you complete your tax return for 2022 income, we recommend using the tax authorities simulator available on the impots.gouv.fr website and choosing your tax method between the 2 options proposed in step 1 below.

Step 1

Option A, I opt for:
the flat tax (PFU) of 30%

I leave box 20P unticked
in the 2042 form

Option B, I opt for:
the progressive scale

I tick box 20P in the 2042 form

Step 2

The amount of my dividend which is pre-completed by the tax authorities is shown in the 2042 form in box 2BH (Revenus déjà soumis aux prélèvements sociaux avec CSG déductible si option barème) and an advance withholding tax payment deducted when the dividend was paid is shown in box 2CK (Prélèvement forfaitaire non libératoire déjà versé en 2022).

Step 3

In the event of a capital gain in 2022, I must complete the amount of my capital gain in the 2042C form in box 3VG (Plus-value sans application d'abattement) without taking into account the deduction for seniority.

Step 4

Only for Option B

I fill in any deductions for the duration of in box 3SG (Abattement pour durée de détention de droit commun) of the 2042C form.

Note : the boxes and forms listed in the table above will be announced by the tax authorities in April 2023, after the date of publication of this document. We invite you to check that the elements mentioned are correct. If you have any questions, tax authorities are your primary contact.

The payment of tax on dividends received in 2023 is carried out in two stages

1 In 2023, when dividends are paid following the 2022 fiscal year:

- If you have sent a request to your account manager for exemption from the advance withholding before November 30, 2022 only the social contributions of 17.2% will be withheld;
- If you did not send the request to your account manager to benefit from this exemption before November 30, 2022, social contributions of 17.2% will be withheld along with an advance withholding of 12.8%, i.e. a total advance withholding of 30%.

2 In 2024, when you pay your income tax on your 2023 income investment, for the balance, if any, depending on the tax method chosen.

Good to know

The payment of tax on capital gains and losses on the sale of securities received in 2022 will be due to the tax authorities in September 2023.
