

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR SECURITY ACCOUNTS HELD WITH AIR LIQUIDE

OPENING THE AIR LIQUIDE DIRECTLY REGISTERED SECURITY ACCOUNT

Any natural or legal entity shareholder may hold a security account kept by Air Liquide. The shareholder must be fully capable of carrying out civil matters or be duly represented.

Failure to sign an account-keeping Agreement does not comply with the French financial market authority's general regulations. Article L322-67 4 provides that an agreement must be established with the holder of the securities. This signed security account Agreement, together with the required supporting documents, will enable you, in the case of a directly registered security account Agreement for a legal entity or an individual, to have access to online stock market orders from the Shareholder Portal (<https://www.airliquide.com>). The signatory of the security account Agreement certifies that he/she has read the general conditions and accepts them.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS TO BE PROVIDED in the case of online opening of a direct registered security account for individuals. The account holder(s)⁽¹⁾ and Air Liquide agree that the account holder(s)⁽¹⁾ may express his/her or their consent by signing electronically by means of a code received by SMS and/or by using any other means made available to him/her or to them by Air Liquide. In accordance with Article 1368 of the Civil Code, the account holder(s)⁽¹⁾ and Air Liquide establish the rules of evidence admissible between them in the context of the electronic signature process. The cardholder(s)⁽¹⁾ and Air Liquide agree that the identification elements used in the context of the electronic signature of this Agreement, namely the authentication devices, the single-use certificates and the time-stamping elements, are proof of the data and elements they contain as well as of the authentication processes and signatures they express, and are admissible in court in the event of a dispute.

PROVIDING INFORMATION TO HOLDERS

Air Liquide makes available to holders⁽¹⁾ an account statement as of December 31 of each year and all their account documents online in their Shareholder Portal.

Holders⁽¹⁾ are informed by e-mail of any new document placed in their online Shareholder Portal at the e-mail address that they have communicated; if no e-mail address is provided or on express request, they are informed by mail. Air Liquide informs the account holders⁽¹⁾ of each securities transaction, enabling them to exercise the rights attached to the securities in the account where necessary.

UPDATE OF THE GENERAL CONDITIONS

All legal or regulatory modifications are binding on the Parties and will take effect automatically without any particular action by Air Liquide with respect to the holder(s)⁽¹⁾.

In the case of modifications to the Agreement at Air Liquide's initiative, the holder(s)⁽¹⁾ will be informed of the availability of the new version of the Agreement at least one ⁽¹⁾ month before it comes into force. The holder(s)⁽¹⁾ may consult the Agreement in force at any time on the website <https://www.actionairliquide.com>. If the holder(s)⁽¹⁾ does not terminate the Agreement within this period, he/she or they will be deemed to have accepted the new version of the Agreement. If the account holder(s)⁽¹⁾ does not accept the new version of the Agreement, this will result in the closure of the holder(s)'s Air Liquide security account. It is the responsibility of the holder(s)⁽¹⁾ to notify by registered mail his/her or their refusal to accept the new version of the Agreement to the following address: AIR LIQUIDE Direction du Service Actionnaires - TSA 91948 - 62978 ARRAS Cedex 9. In any case, in the event of non-acceptance of the new version of the Agreement, the account holder(s)⁽¹⁾ will be obliged to close his/her or their Air Liquide security account before the date on which the new version of the Agreement comes into effect. In this case, the Air Liquide security account will be closed and we will be able, at the holder's or the holders discretion, either to transfer the securities to the bank indicated by the holder(s) or to sell them and credit the holder(s)'s bank account with the proceeds of this sale.

Air Liquide may object to the return of the securities in custody in the event that fees remain due by the holder(s).

In addition to this lien, Air Liquide may benefit from other security interests, liens, and/or rights of set-off.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, and provided that the nature of the securities so permits, all securities held in the account by Air Liquide are subject to the fungibility regime.

The holder(s)⁽¹⁾ agree that Air Liquide will, where appropriate, transfer these securities to an institution managing a clearing or liquidation system.

Pursuant to the provisions of the French Monetary and Financial Code and the French Civil Code, the holder(s) expressly authorize Air Liquide to make adjustments to his/her or their security account in the event of an adjustment of an executed order or of the position eligible for a corporate action or in the event of an error or default, in particular of Air Liquide, a central depository, or an intermediary. Regularizations may only relate to securities and cash amounts strictly necessary for the regularization of the transaction(s) and must be carried out as soon as possible from the date on which Air Liquide becomes aware of the regularization to be carried out.

In the event of a dispute, jurisdiction is conferred on the courts of the location of the head office of L'Air Liquide S.A.

Whenever it deems it reasonably necessary in view of its obligations, CACEIS Bank may, through Air Liquide, request any explanation and the production of any supporting document from the holder(s)⁽¹⁾, mainly:

- concerning any transactions that appear unusual because of, in particular, their methods, amount, or exceptional nature compared with those previously processed by the holder(s)⁽¹⁾;
- concerning the source of the funds used to purchase directly registered securities;

If the usufructuary dies: the death of the usufructuary leads either to the creation of an undivided account for the benefit of all the bare owners, or to the distribution of the securities in the account to each of the bare owners, according to written and signed instructions from all the beneficiaries, accompanied by a copy of their identity card or according to instructions received from the notary in charge of the estate.
